

Unipol Office

Unipol's office is on Woodhouse Lane (A660) between the two Universities. The street is one way, and you will pass Leeds Metropolitan University (Civic Campus) on the left hand side. Continue over the bridge over the inner ring road. Unipol is on the left hand side before you reach the Fenton public house and the traffic lights. There is no parking at Unipol and stopping is restricted on the side streets before and after the office. All keys are collected from the Unipol office, except Mill Street in Leeds and Wardley House in Bradford.

Carlton Hill

From the Unipol Office, continue along the A660 Woodhouse Lane past the University main entrance on your left through a pelican crossing. There are a number of banks on your right. Get into the right hand lane at the traffic lights. Go straight ahead and down the hill with Leeds College of Art and Design on your right. Before you get to the bottom, turn right onto Leicester Place. Continue to the end of this road and turn right onto Carlton Hill. Carlton Hill residence is at the end of this road. The site barrier is raised during busy drop off and collection times. Car parking is restricted to permit holders only and there is no visitor parking on site.

Alexander Court

There is no parking on site. Alexander Court is situated on Alexander Street where there is short term parking controlled by coin meters. The courtyard to Alexander Court belongs to the next door building and they operate a strict clamping policy. From the Unipol office, follow the one way system back into the City Centre past the multi-story on your left. Get into the right hand lane and go straight ahead onto Portland Way and past the Metropolitan University on your right and a car park and then the Civic Hall on your left. Turn left onto Calverley Street and then right onto Portland Street past the Leeds General Infirmary on your right hand side. You will see St. George's Church in front of you and you should turn left down Oxford Place between the two court buildings. Get into the left hand lane and turn left onto Westgate. Take the second left, immediately after the Town Hall back onto Calverley Street. Get into the right hand lane and turn right into Alexander Street before the traffic lights. Alexander Court is on the left hand side behind a stone wall.
